YOUNG TIMBERLAKE ACOUITTED BY JURY

Verdict Creates Much Criticism in the County.

Jail Officials Declare They Have Seen

No Evidence of His Insanity-Man Falls from a Second Story Window at Courthouse.

A widespread discussion in Henrico ounty, among the citizens and the officers as well, pronounces the verdict rendered yesterday in the case of Charles Timberlake, Jr., the young white man charged with committing a criminal assault upon Kesiah Banks, an aged colored woman, a miscarriage of justice and a disgrace. Quite a number of persons were heard to make outspoken expres sions of opinion yesterday afternoon, and there was no bandying with words. Not a man was seen who did not declare in so many words that the action of the jury establishes a dangerous precedent.

The case against Timberlake was prob-The case against Timberlake was probably the most aggravated one of its kind which has ever engaged the attention of a Henrico jury. There was, so far as can be learned, no attempt to deny the can be learned, no attempt to deny the charge. Indisputable evidence proved beyong the peradventure of a doubt that the young man had been guilty of crime—a dark and malignant one. Then the plea of insanity was made, and on this, declared by many to be a mere technicality, or equal to one, the prisoner was declared not guilty. The verdict of the jury, rendered yesterday, was as follows:

"We, the jury, find the accused not guilty, as charged in the indictment, believing that he was insane at the time heving that he was insane at the time the act was committed. (Signed) "E. W. CHRISTIAN.

"Foreman."

There was some question yesterday as There was some question yesterday as to whether or not Timberlake would now have to be tried before a commission of lunacy. Many thought that this would have to be the case, and therein lay the seed for additional discussion and speculation. Courtesy, to a certain extent, requires that the coroner of the county be included on commissions of lunacy. Moreover, Dr. James has attended Timberlake since he has been in jail, and for this reason, if for no other, he would more than likely have to be asked to serve. Now, on his oath, Dr. James testified at the trial that Timberlake is not crazy, and to all appearances never has been. On the commission he would, of course, have expressed this

"But in accordance with the verdict of the jury, it is considered and ordered by the court that the said prisoner be-sent to one of the asylums of the State to be confined therein as a person of un-sering mind, and the court deeming the sund mind, and the court deeming the id prisoner dangerous, it is ordered int he be committed to the fail of this art until he can be sent to the asylum. Meanwhile the discussion continues, and it promises to extend further than the precincts of Henrico. The very jail cificers declare that they have noticed nothing in the conduct of Timberlake which would lead them to believe he is

During the trial he was stretched out on a sofa in the office of the Commenwealth's Attorney and when he rolled off his triends hustled and when he rolled off his friends hustled him out, learing that he would get into trouble. The man then waltzed over to the frent window, which is a consterable distance above the ground, and announced his intention of jumping out. The bystanders paid no attention to him, begiving his threat to be more bravedo, and sure enough when the man reached. and sure, enough when the man reached the edge of the porch, just outside the wirdow, he halted as it to reconsider his determination, but his head Yas considerably heavier than his feet and he toppied over, going down headirst. The injuries he sustained in the fall were exc. (dingly painful, but not serious. He was treated by Dr. Lorrimer James, who was present at the courthouse, and was sent home in a hack. Fortunately the man landed on the grass in the front yard of the courthouse. By a few inches he missed an iron rail-ing with upstanding ends. Had he struck the railing he would probably have been Killed.

An unusual and significant increase in the attendance upon the public schools of the county is a source of much gratication to Superintendent John K. The fire was discovered about 6:40 o'clock, under the floor at the building, in time to extinguish it before much damage was done. The alarm was sounded and the Fire Department responded promptly, but there was no need for their service as the blaze had been extinguished by the employes of the company.

It was evident the fire was of incen diary origin, as in no other way could : blaze from beneath the building be ac-counted for. The fire was evidently kindled by some person who had crawled under the building for that purpose. The damage was trifling. For the lover of birds, September is a month in which every hour at the desk or in the office is sorely begrudged. Once new dresses of many of them make recognition a bit difficult. A greater num-ber are young birds which have not yet attained the plumage of maturity. Then oo, many of the adult birds have donned their traveling gowns, which are much nuptial season. The spring songs are lacking now, but the familiar twitterings and characteristic notes are to be heard wherever the birds are found. The fall of the migrants are making their first long journey. Then, again, September nights are inclined to be loggy. The re-
